

Bellwork

2-18-20

- Review your notes on the Reformation and Martin Luther, then write your answers to the following questions on your bellwork form:
- 1. What were some of the main causes of the Reformation?
- 2. What were some of the main effects of the Reformation?
- 3. How did the ideas and principles of the Renaissance (i.e. humanism) help create an environment for the Reformation to spread?

Bellwork

2-19-20

- Write three questions that you think may be on a quiz about the Renaissance and Reformation on your bellwork form and answer them using complete sentences.

Bellwork

2-20-20

- Draw chart below onto your bellwork form. Then, fill in the characteristics of each, including any similarities, using the vocabulary words from the packet.

Golden Age of Europe
(Renaissance 1400-1600)

Golden Age of China
(Tang and Song Dynasties)

Comparison Mini-Essay

- 3 paragraphs
- 1st paragraph should contain a thesis statement about the similarities and differences between the Chinese (Tang and Song Dynasties) and European (The Renaissance) Golden Ages.
- 2nd paragraph should be about the similarities- in detail. Give examples and/or text evidence and explain in your own words how these similarities connect.
- 3rd paragraph should be about the differences- in detail. Give examples and/or text evidence and explain in your own words why these differences are unique to that civilization, how it influenced the “Golden Age” and/or why they matter to the world.